(B) Attention and Appeal

1. Appropriate traffic aids or signs will be erected to guide motorists.
2. The public transport operators will display notices to advise passengers of the above temporary arrangements.
3. Actual implementation and adjustments to road closures, traffic control and public transport diversions will be made by the Police during Chung Yeung Festival depending on road condition. Police officers will be on-site to guide the motorists.
4. The Transport Department anticipates that the traffic in the vicinity of Cape Collinson Road, Lin Shing Road and Wan Tsui Road in Chai Wan will be relatively busy. Motorists are advised not to drive to the congested and affected areas. In case of traffic congestion, motorists should exercise tolerance and patience and observe the instruction given by the Police, and watch out for the latest traffic news through the media.
5. Motorists are advised that, any vehicles found illegally parked within the precinct of the special traffic arrangements may be towed away by the Police without prior notice.
6. Grave-sweepers are advised to plan their journey early and allow more travelling time, and use public transport services as far as possible.
7. Grave-sweepers heading to the Cape Collinson-San Ha Columbarium may make use of the escalators and pedestrian access route connecting San Ha Street at Chai Wan (near Chai Wan MTR Station Exit A) and the said columbarium.
8. For updated and latest traffic and transport information, members of the public can visit the TD's website (www.td.gov.hk) or use the mobile application "HKeMobility".
