Attention and Appeal

Appropriate traffic signs will be erected to guide motorists. The public transport operators will display notices at the stops and inside vehicle compartments to advise passengers of the above temporary arrangements.

The Transport Department (TD) anticipates that the traffic in the vicinity of Wan Chai North will be busier. Motorists are advised to avoid driving to the affected areas and should exercise tolerance and patience in case of traffic congestion, and follow the instruction given by the Police.

Depending on the actual traffic conditions in the areas, other ad-hoc traffic and public transport measures, including road closures, traffic diversion, alteration and suspension of public transport services may be implemented by the Police.

Members of the public who plan to go to the affected areas are advised to plan their routes early, allow more travelling time to cater for unexpected delay, use public transport services as far as possible and watch out for the latest traffic news through the media. Bus commuters are advised to pay attention to the arrangements of route diversions and suspension / relocation of stops.

For the details of the special traffic and transport information, members of the public may call 1823 Call Centre, browse the website of TD at www.td.gov.hk or make use the “eTraffic News” mobile application of TD.
