

Guidance Notes on the Applications for a Certificate of Particulars of Vehicle

I. Purpose

This document provides guidance for the public on the application for a Certificate of Particulars of Vehicle (“Certificate”).

II. Background

2. All types of vehicles used on the roads of Hong Kong, except otherwise stated in the Road Traffic Ordinance (Cap. 374), have to be registered and licensed. Regulation 4(1) of the Road Traffic (Registration and Licensing of Vehicles) Regulations (Cap. 374E) (“the Regulations”) provides that the Commissioner for Transport (“the Commissioner”) shall maintain a register of vehicles (“the Register”) containing the particulars of the vehicles as specified in Schedule 1 to the Regulations.

3. The particulars in the Register are protected by the Basic Law, the Hong Kong Bill of Rights Ordinance (Cap. 383) and the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance (Cap. 486). It is the duty of the Commissioner to manage the particulars kept in the Register and adopt appropriate measures to protect the privacy of registered vehicle owners and prevent abuse of such particulars. As such, the Transport Department (“TD”) must ensure that the purpose of application conforms with the purposes of the Register and should require an applicant to provide information including the applicant’s own identification details and the purpose and reason of application for considering whether to issue the Certificate or not. Application procedures and guidelines stipulated by TD are set out in this document.

III. Purposes of the Register

4. The Register is established for the following purposes:

- (1) regulating the use of vehicles;

- (2) enabling the law enforcement agencies to discharge their responsibilities; and
- (3) providing relevant information to persons directly affected by the ownership or use of a vehicle who as a result need to ascertain the particulars of that vehicle.

IV. Conditions of Application for a Certificate and How to Apply

The applicant must also state to TD the identity document number (if the registered vehicle owner is an individual), or Certificate of Incorporation Number or Company Registration Number (if the registered vehicle owner is a body corporate) of the vehicle owner, and such information provided should conform with the records maintained by TD; or
- (3) The applicant declares to the Commissioner that his (or his principal¹'s) interests are directly affected by the ownership or use of the vehicle, and therefore needs to ascertain the particulars of that vehicle, and that such information would only be used for

6. The interpretation and examples of the specified purposes under items (3) (a) to (g) of paragraph 5 are set out at Annex B.

7. With respect to all applications, if the Commissioner reasonably believes that approving a particular application would be contrary to the interests of national security, or is likely to threaten public safety or prejudice the maintenance of public order, it would be rejected.

16. 17. In making an application under exceptional circumstances, applicants are required to provide in their written submissions adequate and detailed justifications (including but not limited to the aforesaid consideration factors) and relevant supporting documents if available. The Commissioner reserves all rights in deciding whether to provide the vehicle particulars concerned to the applicant after taking into account all relevant factors.

20. TD may consult other Government departments on the applications under exceptional circumstances, and may request applicants to provide supplementary information and proof (including those pertaining to factors other than the aforesaid consideration factors) for TD's consideration.
