Introduction

The Taxi written test aims at ensuring the taxi drivers can drive safely, with good traffic and location knowledge of Hong Kong and are familiar with the laws and regulations governing the operation of taxi drivers. The purpose of this Guide is to provide candidates with more information with respect to taxi written test, especially on the examination format as well as the assessment criteria. With a deeper understanding, candidates can better prepare for the test.

Basic Requirements and Test Assessment Standards

Candidates applying for Taxi written test must be either a holder of a valid full driving licence for private car or light goods vehicles for at least 3 years immediately preceding their applications (if your full driving licence was obtained without undergoing a probationary driving period); or had completed a 12 months probationary driving period of private car or light goods vehicles plus holder of a valid full driving licence for private car for at least 2 years immediately preceding their applications. In addition, candidates must not be convicted of an offence under Section 36 (Causing death by dangerous driving), Section 36A (Causing grievous bodily harm by dangerous driving), Section 39 (Driving a motor vehicle under the influence of drink or drugs), Section 39A (Driving, attempting to drive or being in charge of a motor vehicle with alcohol concentration above prescribed limit), Section 39B (Screening breath tests), Section 39C (Provision of specimens for analysis), Section 39J (Driving motor vehicle without proper control under influence of specified illicit drug), Section 39K (Driving motor vehicle with any concentration of specified illicit drug), Section 39L (Driving motor vehicle without proper control under influence of drug other than specified illicit drug), Section 39O(1) (Failure to undergo preliminary drug test), Section 39S (Failure to provide specimen of blood or urine) of the Road Traffic Ordinance (Cap. 374) during the 5 years immediately preceding their applications.

According to Sections 11 and 15 of the Road Traffic (Driving Licences) Regulations (Cap. 374B), applicant can apply for a full driving licence within 3 years after passing all parts of the driving test and a full driving licence must be renewed within 3 years after its expiry. If the applicant cannot fulfill the residence requirement at the time when applying for issue or renewal of the full driving licence for commercial classes but he/she meets the residence requirement (i.e. Hong Kong permanent resident/subject to no condition of stay) afterwards, he/she may apply for the commercial classes within 3 years from the passing date of driving tests or within 3 years after the expiry of the most recent full driving licence with commercial driving classes. Otherwise, he/she will be required to take the relevant driving tests again and obtain a learner's driving licence if he/she wishes to learn to drive before obtaining a full driving licence with relevant commercial vehicle classes.

Normally, candidates, who have passed the written test, can apply for a full driving licence for taxi without the need to attend any road test. In addition, if a candidate's driving licence has been suspended by the court before the test, he/she will be disqualified from taking the test and the test fee will not be refunded.

The Taxi written test is divided into 3 parts, all of which should be answered by candidates. The questions are in the form of multiple choices and there is only one correct answer for each question. The time allowed for the test is 45 minutes.

(1) Part A: Taxi Regulations

This part consists of 20 questions. In each question, candidates are required to choose the most suitable one from four available options as the answer. To obtain a 'pass' in this part, candidates must not commit more than three mistakes.

(2) Part B: Location and Route Questions

This part consists of 20 questions. 18 of the 20 questions are location questions, and candidates are required to choose the most suitable one from four available options as the answer. Two of the 20 questions are route questions, and candidates are required to choose the most suitable one from three available options as the answer. To obtain a 'pass' in this part, candidates must not commit more than three mistakes.

(3) Part C: Road Users' Code

This part consists of 50 questions. In each question, candidates are required to choose the most suitable one from three available options as the answer. To obtain a 'pass' in this part, candidates must not commit more than seven mistakes.

To score an overall 'PASS' result in the Taxi written test, a candidate must be able to meet the passing criteria in each of the three parts mentioned above. A candidate will be classified as 'FAIL' in the test if he fails in any part of the test.

The Taxi Written Test is conducted in the following written test centre of the Transport Department. The address of the written test centre and the Driving Test Appointment Office is:-

2/F, Cheung Sha Wan Government Offices,
303 Cheung Sha Wan Road, Kowloon

During the test, candidates can use both touch screen and mouse to give answers. Candidates can familiarise themselves with the interface of the computerised written test and practise the touch screen features in the Kiosks located at the Driving Test Appointment Office lobby.

When attending the Taxi Written Test, candidates can choose Traditional Chinese, Simplified Chinese or English as the test language on the computer screen.

Scope of Test and Suggested Reference

(1) Part A: Taxi Regulations

This part is to test candidates' knowledge on the guidelines and regulations related to the taxi industry. All questions in this part are set based on the booklet "Guidelines to Taxi Regulations" published by the Transport Department. The booklet is written by extracting relevant topics from the Road Traffic (Construction and Maintenance of Vehicles) and Road Traffic (Public Service Vehicles) Regulations of the Road Traffic Ordinance (Cap. 374) with a view to explaining laws and regulations related to the operation of taxi.

The "Guidelines to Taxi Regulations" booklet will be sent to candidates with the taxi written test appointment letter. Latest notices or updates regarding this Guideline, if any, will be released on the Transport Department's website:

www.td.gov.hk > Publications and Press Releases > Publications > Free Publications

(2) Part B: Location and Route Questions

The purpose of this part is to test the location knowledge as well as the route planning capacity of candidates. For location questions, the scope mainly covers major hospitals, tourist spots, hotels, government buildings, commercial buildings, shopping malls, residential buildings and higher education institutions in Hong Kong Island, Kowloon, the New Territories and the Lantau Island. For route questions, candidates are required to identify the most direct viable route between two specified locations under normal traffic and assuming tunnel toll (if applicable) is not a factor to be considered.

All questions in this part are set based on the "Location and Route Questions Booklet" published by the Transport Department. The booklet is prepared by making reference to materials including the "Hong Kong Guide" published by the Survey & Mapping Office of the Lands Department.

The latest version of "Location and Route Questions Booklet" will be sent to candidates with the taxi written test appointment letter. Latest notices or updates regarding "Location and Route Questions Booklet", if any, will be released on the Transport Department's website:

www.td.gov.hk > Publications and Press Releases > Publications > Free Publications

(3) Part C: Road Users' Code

This part is to test the candidates' knowledge on road traffic regulations and safe driving. Questions are set based on the "Road Users' Code". All questions in this part are based on the "Road Users' Code (May 2000 Edition)" booklet published by the Transport Department. The format of questions is the same as those in the private car/light goods vehicles written tests.

Candidates can purchase the booklet "Road Users' Code" at the Government Publication Centre situated at Room 626, 6th floor, North Point Government Offices, 333 Java Road, North Point, Hong Kong and the contact phone number is 2537 1910, or view it and other test related publications at the Transport Department's website.

Documents and Papers for Test

Candidates should present the following documents and papers for inspection when attending the taxi written test:-

1. Hong Kong Identity Card or an alternative identity document e.g. passport (previously registered in the Transport Department; defaced or expired documents will not be accepted);
2. valid full driving licence; and
3. test appointment letter.

Candidate who is unable to present document listed in items (1) and (2) will not be allowed to attend the test scheduled.

If the identification documents presented by a candidate is damaged or defaced, then the candidate may not be allowed to attend the test. Candidates are therefore recommended to carefully inspect their identification documents before the test. If the identification documents are damaged or defaced, candidates are advised to bring along a valid passport for the test or apply for a new identity card from the Immigration Department.

If a candidate wishes to postpone the test and his or her test form is close to its expiry date, the candidate must purchase another test form to make the new appointment valid. (Note : the validity period for a test form is 18 months) Candidates should also carefully study the 'Notes' printed on the appointment letter to acquire a better understanding of the details of the test and the rules governing application for postponement.

Examination Regulations

Candidates must follow the following examination rules and instructions of the invigilators. Anyone who fails to do so may result in his/her disqualification from the test and invalidation of the test forms. He or she may also be requested to leave the test room immediately. Candidates who encounter any problem related to the test should raise their hand and speak to the invigilators.

- (1) Candidates must switch off all communication equipment like mobile phone, smart watch and tablet. Other than the test ticket allocated by this Department during registration, all other personal belongings should be placed on the top of the booth. No pets or recording apparatus like video-cam, phone-cam, watch-cam or sound recorder will be allowed. Without the invigilator's permission, candidates must not take out anything during the test (e.g. water and medicine).
- (2) Candidates wishing to go to the restroom during the test should inform the invigilator by raising their hand. However, the time consumed will be counted as part of the test time. No extra time will be given. Therefore, candidates are advised to go to the restroom immediately before starting the test if they have the need.
- (3) Candidates will be disqualified if they cheat, attempt to cheat or record the test content in whatever method and their test form will also be invalidated. Please note that is CCTV installed in the test room and the entire test will be recorded for future reference.
- (4) Candidates must not smoke, eat, drink, talk with or disturb other candidates in whatever way.
- (5) Under the Prevention of Bribery Ordinance, it is an offence in law for any candidate to offer any advantage to any staff with a view to influencing him/her in discharging his/her official duties. Any candidate attempting to bribe any staff or anyone in connection with the driving test (including written test) will not only be disqualified but will also be prosecuted.

- (6) If candidates have queries about the test regulations or difficulties in using the computer or wish to leave the test room, they should raise their hand to seek invigilator's assistance. Do remember, no extra time will be given on such circumstances. Therefore, candidates are advised to raise the questions before the start of the test if they have to.
- (7) Candidates are required to sit according to the table number printed on their test tickets and input the Test Form Number after choosing a test language. They will then have 5 minutes to read the instructions, after which, the test will automatically start. Candidates could also start the test by pressing [BEGIN TEST]. Candidates will not be allowed to change the chosen test language once the test begins.
- (8) After finishing the test, candidates wishing to leave prematurely must inform the invigilator by raising their hand. Candidates should ensure that "Test Finished" is shown on the computer screen before leaving the test room. Once they have left, they will not be permitted to enter the test room again. The test result will be available in about 15 minutes after submission of test, and candidates could wait at the Driving Test Appointment Office counter 36 for collection of their result slip.

Notes for Disabled Candidates

Before applying for a driving test, person with physical disabilities (e.g. deaf, colour blind, missing or defective limbs) must seek the recommendations from registered medical practitioners. In addition, he/she has to undergo an assessment conducted by the Transport Department. Approval letter will be issued upon satisfactory assessment result, and the candidate should present the letter to the invigilators before the test starts. In case of doubt, please contact Transport Department Driving Services Section (Headquarter Office) at 2713 7262.

Result Notification

Result slip will be distributed to candidates in the Driving Test Appointment Office in about 15 minutes after the test at counter 36.

However, if a candidate's driving licence has been suspended by the court before taking the test, the test result will be nullified and the test fee will not be refunded.
